

BOARD POLICY

WESTERN IOWA TECH COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Series Number 501

Title Student Affairs

Statement of Guiding Principles

Consistent with WITCC Mission Statement, the Student Affairs Division provides student development and support services which enable students to evaluate their potential, set achievable goals, persist in an educational program of their choice, express special abilities, and achieve employment or other planned life experiences. WITCC strives to provide an educational environment which enables students to effectively assimilate both the employment competencies and citizenship knowledge and the habits which will insure a satisfactory contribution toward the attainment of the goals of our democratic society.

It is the policy of the Board of Directors to respect the rights of each individual while promoting the welfare of all students.
