The College shall offer occupationally oriented instructional programs which shall be competency based.

All vocational-technical programs shall be routinely evaluated with respect to curriculum, educational resources, recruitment/admissions, completion of student goals, student achievement, graduation rate, and job placement.

Successful completion of a program of instruction shall be recognized by the awarding of the appropriate degree, diploma, or certificate.