The President shall be responsible for establishing the procedures necessary to insure comprehensive and timely reports on the annual accomplishments, condition, and established goals for all operations of the College.