Title: Community Activities Involving Students

Use of College for Sales Promotions

College facilities, staff, and students shall not be used for the promotion or sale of services or products by individuals, commercial agencies, or organizations doing business for profit. Prohibited are the following:

1. Distribution of pamphlets urging students, parents, and others to purchase services or products sold for profit.

2. The sale of products and/or services except in relation to production by students as a part of an instructional program or as part of an approved student or employee fund raising project.

3. Similar activities which would involve the teachers and students and which would interfere with the normal time and activities of the college.

Exempt from the provisions of this policy shall be a student insurance program.

Where it is felt that educational gain would outweigh the promotional purpose, the President or his/her designee may review the specific request and may grant approval.
